"The Indian army is to be increased by the addition of a company to each regiment." There have been some very serious disturban-ore among the Madras regiments at Secunderebad, in the Nizam's country, in consequence of the Court of Directors having ordered that the allowance of battu lutterly granted should be discontinued.

The voldiers of some of the best regiments re fused to obey their omcers, slaung that it would be better not to be in the service than to starve or have their fimilies starve, as the allowances granted on removing 320 miles into the Nizam's country, were now refused. Later from Texas.

Pepers have been received from Galvesten up to the 4th inst. No battle at last dates. The invasion by Arista with 14,000 men is regarded as certain. The news is interesting, though not very "warlike." The Mexicans had made no invasion up to the last dates.

The editor of the Galveston Advertiser apprehends a visit from Arista. In his paper of the 4th inst. he says: "While at the Rancho of Messrs. Aubry & Kinny, we had a full and free conversation with the enterprizing proprietors of that place, and with several other gentlemen resident Ur Clean-up door yards and repair garden there, and from them we learn that us far as they had been able to obtain information, the immediate invasion of Texas by a large force under Arista was intended.

The captain of the company who visited the Rancho, with Aristo's proclamation (Captain Arana) stated that it was the intention of Arists. to enter the country with 14,000 men, that he would take possession of San Antonio and Victoria, and carablish those two places this spring, and pursue his operations through the remainder of Texas the following season. We are inclined to think, however, there is a small sprinkling of 'guess' in the much tolked of invasion. He says that the Mexican troops never had any idea of attacking Austin, and would never have ventured to Bexar had they not procured hearty encouragement from nearly every Mexican citizen of that place. We learn verbally that the Texan forces are concentrating on the Colorado, and the country is full of volunteers. The steamer Lafitte had returned to Galveston with-out meeting any Mexicans. The difficulty between France and Texas has been amicably arranged, and M. de Saligny will shortly resume his official station.

The New Orleans and Mobile volunteers had arrived. On the morning of the Vol two Mexicans rode into Camp Blanco, who were immediately taken, as spics, tried, identified as being of Blas falcon's party (robbers,) engaged in the murder of Col. Karnes; and hung. The country was swarming with volunteers. Many companies from the neighboring states had arrived.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 15. The Senate was not in session to-day.

In the House, Mr. L. W. Andrews waived his motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolution to terminate debate in Committee at 12 o'clock to-day was adopted?

The Appropriation Bill was taken up in Committee of the Whole, and Mr. Botts spoke till twelve in reply to Mr. Adams, on the subject of slavery, the slave trade, the right of search, &c. contending that the South were equally with the North opposed to the slave trade, and to the for sale by operation of the right of "earch, that they only as a means of self-prescription looked to the annexation to the Union of Texas, the best

The motion to reconsider failed. The various amendments were then voted on in Committee, and the bill having been reported to the Hours. Mr. Botts moved an amendment providing for etting out to the lowest bidder the contracts for stationery, binding and printing of the Executive Departments, and called the previous question, which was demanded by the House."

The amendment was adopted; and without further definitive action the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 17.

In the House to-day, the Appropriation bill was not taken up in committee until 12 o'clock; the hour at which, according to the order, all debate was to cease. The committee then took up the bill in good earnest, and finished-it, having adopted several amendments at about three o'clock. It will be reported to the House on Monday.

There was no session of the Senate.

MYSTERIOUS. GENTLEMAN belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up-to-recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health has regained his natural erect position and has quitted his carriage, and now walks with ease!! We believe this is the genthemen's own doscription as near as possible, and there is no exaggeration in it. We will give inquirers his address, and doubt not his humane feelings will excuse the liberty; so that any one doubting may know these facts though he requests his name mey not appear in print Among other similar instances, Mr. James G.
